DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

In response to the amendments and arguments filed 4/2/2008, the rejections under 35 USC 101 and 112 are withdrawn, and the 102(a) rejection over Li et al has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 8, 13, and 17 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dimitrov et al WO 2005/001034. Applicant argues that Dimitrov contains a "shotgun" type listing of fragments far exceeding those actually studied by Dimitrov, and does not teach the isolated antibody claimed. The examiner agrees that Dimitrov teaches many products in addition to those claimed, and does not contain a working example of the antibody claimed. However, Dimitrov teaches the SEQ ID NO:31 fragment (aa 1101-1189), teaches a method to make an antibody which would necessarily be isolated (claim 74), teaches a monoclonal antibody, which would also necessarily be isolated (claim 81), and explicitly claims an isolated polyclonal antibody (claim 82). Since the reference teaches products having each and every characteristic of the claimed products, it is maintained that the reference anticipates the invention. The disclosure of additional products does not negate the disclosure of antibodies meeting the claim limitations.

Haynes et al US 2007/0092936 is cited as of interest, as pointing to the regions of spike protein residues 1066-1094, 1121-1153, 1162-1191, 1127-1161, and 1162-1197 for induction of neutralizing antibodies, see Table 1, paragraph 28, and Figure 11.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
